

School Equality Scheme

2012/16

ST JOSEPHS CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL

There is a duty on all public bodies to have an Equality Scheme. The full St Joseph's Scheme is available from the School Office. This website version sets out the main parts of the Equality Scheme likely to be of most interest to parents and other stakeholders.

Parents may be particularly interested in the Commitments for all members of the School Community including parents and children set out in Section 4 and the Equality Objectives set out in Section 7.

1: Vision and Values

Our equality vision and the values that underpin school life

St Joseph's Catholic Primary School Mission Statement

Let it be known to all who enter here that Christ is the reason for this school, the unseen but ever present teacher in all its classes, the model for its children, the inspiration for its staff.

Love and learn in the Footsteps of Christ.

Our Values

We will work hard to help children to develop into confident, responsible and caring adults ready to be citizens in a multicultural society.

To achieve this we will:

- 1 Respect the equal human rights of all our pupils and to educate them about equality.
- 2 Work to promote positive attitudes to disability by enabling all pupils involved in the school community to contribute to and gain full access to all activities.
- 3 Create an environment where respect and racial harmony mean that all pupils are able to reach their full potential.
- 4 Promote gender equality in all aspects of school life by challenging stereotypes, achievement gaps and self-limiting aspirations.
- 5 Take account of difference (for example, disability, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, social context, vulnerable child status) and help overcome any barriers to learning in order to promote achievement and fulfilment in all our pupils.
- 6 Respect the equal rights of our staff and other members of the community.
- 7 In particular we will comply with relevant legislation and frame and implement school policies and plans in relation to race and religious equality, disability equality, gender equality and community cohesion.

We will promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental, and physical development of pupils at the school and in society, and prepare pupils at the school for opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life. In particular we will aim to ensure that experience in school reflects the multicultural world in which we now all live and that children in the school will learn respect for others whatever their culture.

St Joseph's aims to be a cohesive community without the barriers of disability, gender, and race. We intend that our policies, procedures and activities should promote:

- positive attitudes towards disabled people, good relations between disabled and non-disabled people, and an absence of harassment of disabled people.
- positive interaction, good relations and dialogue between groups and communities different from each other in terms of ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status, and an absence of prejudice-related bullying and incidents
- mutual respect and good relations between boys and girls, and women and men, and an absence of sexual and homophobic harassment.

In relation to this;

Curriculum: The school provides a broad and balanced curriculum for all children. The National Curriculum is our starting point for planning that meets the specific needs of individuals and groups of children. When planning, teachers set suitable learning challenges and respond to children's diverse learning needs.

Special needs: A minority of children has particular learning and assessment requirements that could create barriers to learning. These requirements are likely to arise as a consequence of a child having special educational needs or disability. Teachers take account of these requirements and make provision, where necessary, to support individuals or groups of children and thus enable them to participate effectively in curriculum and assessment activities as inclusively as possible.

Recognising difference: Through appropriate curricular provision, we respect the fact that children

- have different educational and behavioural needs and aspirations;
- require different strategies for learning;
- acquire, assimilate and communicate information at different rates;
- need a range of different teaching approaches and experiences.

As an employer: We observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development. We ensure that policies and procedures should benefit all employees and potential employees, for example in recruitment and promotion, and in continuing professional development.

Transparency and consultation: We will publish the key elements of the Equality Scheme. We will also publish quantitative and qualitative information showing compliance with the Public Sector Equality Duty (see Section 3 of this Scheme).

We will keep our equality objectives under review and report annually on progress towards achieving them.

We will consult and try to involve widely to ensure that those who are affected by a policy or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies and in the review of existing ones

4: Roles and Responsibilities and Publish Information

Chain of accountability

The Board of Governors, supported by the Headteacher and staff, is responsible for ensuring the implementation of this scheme.

Commitment to implementation

Headteacher, Mrs Payne, retains overall responsibility for ensuring that the action plan is delivered effectively.

Every term, managers and key staff will report to the Headteacher on actions and progress.

Every 12 months there will be a report on equality and diversity to the Governors meeting.

All staff are responsible for delivering the scheme both as employees and as it relates to their area of work.

Commitment to review

The school equality scheme will be aligned with the School Development Plan. Its implementation will be monitored within the school's self-evaluation and other review processes as well as being updated annually. Following this regular impact assessment the whole equality scheme will be reviewed every 4 years.

Publish Information - specific duty to demonstrate compliance with the Public Sector Equality Duty

At St Joseph's Primary School we will publish information annually. The basic principle underlying the new specific duties is that of 'transparency', which ensures that we fulfil the aims of the Equality Duty to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between different groups. Transparency means being open about the information on which we base our decisions, on what to publish and how.

Equality information will be available on the school website. We will publish information on:

- evidence of staff training on the Equality Act 2010
- copies of policies, for example the behaviour policy, or anti-bullying policy, or the recruitment policy, where the importance of avoiding discrimination and other prohibited conduct is expressly noted
- aspects of the curriculum which explore different cultures and promote understanding of different religions
- involvement with local communities

We will also publish annually on the school's webpage

- the links to the relevant government performance tables
- a summary document of equality actions, taking in the preceding year SATs data
- plus an update consisting of impact assessment results, progress made, refinements, amendments, and new actions.

We will also publish the results of the full scheme review every four years; that review will make proposals for future action.

Equality information will be available on the school website, in the newsletter and a copy of the full scheme will be available in the school office.

Complying with legal duties

We comply fully with legislation which protects our staff (including teachers, teaching assistants, supervisors and student teachers) from discrimination on the grounds of gender, transsexual status, race, disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief, or age. With regards to disability, we make such reasonable adjustments as are necessary to prevent a disabled person being at a substantial disadvantage in comparison with a person who is not disabled.

5: Engagement

Involving our learners, parents/carers and others

Engagement – Participation and Involvement

All pupils are engaged with equality issues and concerns through the curriculum, PSHE and religious education, as well as through the general ethos of the school and its high achievement expectations.

Pupils contribute to the development and evaluation of the school's approach through questionnaires, giving their views and through consultations with the school council

All parents and carers will be made aware of the school's approach to embedding equality issues in the school's activities through the newsletter, parent drop-ins, discussion with, the attitudes and behaviour of staff and through the attitudes of their children.

In keeping with our duties under the disability legislation, we have involved a number of staff, parents, pupils and other interested parties in the development of our Disability Equality Scheme and will continue to involve them with the SES (school's equality scheme). More detail is given in the action plan.

Specific actions

We value diversity within the community and we are continuing to develop a culture of trust and openness within our school community. The following are current actions, which we will continue to monitor and support

Young Carers group meets regularly with an equivalent group in another school.

Staff from St Joseph's work alongside others in the community for various functions:

- SENCo works with the Children's centre in order to identify vulnerable children and to plan accordingly.
- With the Multi Ethnic Community Support Service (MECS) - for guidance on cultural differences and understanding.
- With charities and professional bodies specialising in needs relevant to pupils or families at the school, for example Diabetes, Young carer's, Peace Hospice-bereavement, Specific Learning difficulties, Colnbrook Moderate learning difficulty school outreach, Chessbrook educational support for behaviour, and Targeted advice team for social inclusion.
- Head teacher with PCSOs and local police to understand local problems and act as necessary.
- Head Teacher/ Mrs Wright (RE Co-ordinator) to work with St Joseph's Church to teach and to plan for the children's spiritual progress within the Church community.

The Head teacher completes and analyses RAISE on line data. That data is used to compare our figures from year to year to identify trends that may need addressing.

The Head Teacher reports on incidents of harassment and bullying as required by Hertfordshire Education. Where necessary, the Headteacher instigates action to address any underlying issues that may need addressing .

The school governing body and senior leaders collect information regarding staff and pupil headcount by gender, disability age, and ethnicity including data and other information on staff recruitment and progression. The school seeks to collect this information sensitively and confidentially, while encouraging disclosure.

The information is analysed in order to show how;

- Children and young people with disability have access to educational opportunity to achieve the outcomes of Every Child matters; are included in school activities (curricular and extra- curricular) and are represented in organisations within the school, such as the School Council.
- Staff with disability are represented within the various groups of employees and levels of seniority within the school. The exit policy for staff leavers also focuses upon the need to ensure that no employee is made to feel unwelcome due to disability.

Key Action:

A key aim is to build up trust so that our learners, parents, carers, and other stakeholders feel able to contribute to the development and review of all policies and practises affecting the life of the school and its impact within the wider community. (See action plan)

Evidence of this engagement will be included in the published material showing how the duty has been addressed.

7: Our School's Equality Objectives

Key priorities for action

Achievements to date

Disability: Increased opportunity for pupil participation (e.g. through using Makaton signing), visual timetables, adapted equipment, young carers group etc. Improvement to school environment and training for staff (e.g. on epi pens); use of graduate play therapist

Gender: special attention to girls' maths.

Ethnicity: building on the Olympics, looked at cultures in school and sought to celebrate

Equality Objectives.

Our equality objective-setting process has involved gathering evidence as follows:
